DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN PEARCE AND MEMBERS HIROZAWA
AND SCHIFFER

On December 10, 2012, the Board issued a Decision and Order in this proceeding, which is reported at 359 NLRB No. 28. Thereafter, the General Counsel filed an application for enforcement in the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit.

At the time of the Decision and Order, the composition of the Board included two persons whose appointments to the Board had been challenged as constitutionally infirm. On June 26, 2014, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in NLRB v. Noel Canning, 134 S.Ct. 2550 (2014), holding that the challenged appointments to the Board were not valid. Thereafter, the court of appeals vacated the Board’s Decision and Order and remanded this case for further proceedings consistent with the Supreme Court’s decision.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court in NLRB v. Noel Canning, supra, we have considered de novo the decision and the record in light of the exceptions and briefs. We have also considered the now-vacated Decision and Order, and we agree with the rationale set forth therein. Accordingly, we affirm the judge’s rulings, findings, and conclusions and adopt the judge’s recommended Order¹ to the extent and for the reasons stated in the Decision and Order reported at 359 NLRB No. 28, which is incorporated herein by reference.

¹ We shall substitute a new notice in accordance with our decision in Durham School Services, 360 NLRB No. 85 (2014).
